

PSYCHOLOGICAL FIRST AID: Train the Trainer (ATLANTA) – Free training opportunity

We are pleased to announce the upcoming course offering of “Psychological First Aid: Train the Trainer” taking place in Atlanta, GA on September 9 - 10, 2025. This is a valuable opportunity for those looking to become certified trainers in Psychological First Aid and strengthen our collective capacity to support communities during disaster and crisis response.

Upcoming Course:

- Georgia Department of Public Health Office – Twin Towers (East Building – 3rd Floor)
- 200 Piedmont Avenue, S.E., Atlanta, GA30334
 - 9/9: EOC Briefing Room (Room 3-240)
 - 9/10: EOC (Room 3-230)

Register here: <https://training.gema.ga.gov/TRS/broadcastInvite.do?biCofId=71271>

This training is open to individuals who are active in disaster response and recovery, and who are committed to providing future Psychological First Aid trainings to their communities.

Prerequisites: If you register for this training, you must also fill out this Google document. Applicants will be automatically wait-listed until the Google Doc is completed and applicants are vetted by the trainers.

Space is limited, so we encourage early registration. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to Kalie Burke at kalie.burke@dbhdd.ga.gov

Thank you for your continued partnership in building a more resilient Georgia!